All questions must be answered with complete and accurate information that is subject to verification. If the answer is none, not applicable, or unknown, so state. The questions are not intended to limit the presentation nor are the questions intended to duplicate information supplied on another form or in an exhibit. For example, a cross-reference to the information is acceptable. Any cross-reference must be made to a specific cite or location in the documents, so the information can be located easily. Use additional sheets as necessary. Each regulatory agency will provide additional instructions for use and preparation. If the report is not complete, the regulatory agency may either request additional information or return the filing. If you are a foreign national or a United States citizen who currently resides in a foreign country, additional information may be necessary.

In addition, each regulatory agency specifically reserves the right to require up to five years of financial data from any acquiring person as well as the filing of additional information and/or statements, such as a federal income tax return or a current appraisal to support an asset's value.

If you have been convicted of any criminal offense involving dishonesty, breach of trust, or money laundering, or have agreed to enter into a pretrial diversion or similar program in connection with a prosecution of such offense (12 U.S.C. § 1829), you must obtain approval from the FDIC before you can own, control, participate in the affairs of, or become an institution-affiliated party of a depository institution.

Each individual must report promptly any material change in the biographical report or financial condition that occurs during the review period for the filing. For additional information regarding the processing procedures and guidelines and any supplemental information that may be required, refer to the appropriate regulatory agency's procedural guidelines (that is, the Comptroller's Licensing Manual, the FDIC's Rules and Regulations (12 C.F.R. Privacy Act Notice

The solicitation and collection of this information, including a Social Security Number, is authorized by those statutes that require an appropriate federal banking agency to determine the competence, experience, integrity, and financial ability of individuals proposing to serve a federally regulated financial institution in an official capacity that is, as a director, officer, employee, or principal shareholder. These statutes include: 12 U.S.C. § 27 (national bank charters); 12 U.S.C. § 1464 (federal savings bank charters); 12 U.S.C. § 1815 (federal deposit insurance); 12 U.S.C. § 1817(j) (changes in control of insured depository institutions); and 12 U.S.C. § 1831(i) (agency disapproval of directors and senior executive officers of insured depository institutions or depository institution holding companies). The provision of requested information, including a Social Security Number, is voluntary. However, the failure to provide any requested information may result in denial, disapproval, or delay in the processing of an application or notice.

Depending on the manner in which an appropriate federal banking agency maintains solicited information, some or all of that information may be subject to the Privacy Act of 1974, 5 U.S.C. § 552a. In such instances, disclosures of covered information may be made to: (1) third parties to complete background checks; (2) financial institutions for supervisory purposes; (3) governmental, tribal, self-regulatory, or professional organizations when information is relevant to either a known or suspected violation of law or licensing standard or relevant and necessary to the governmental or self-regulatory organization's regulation or supervision of financial service providers; (4) the Department of Justice, a court, an adjudicative body, a party in litigation, or a witness when relevant and necessary to a legal or administrative proceeding; (5) congressional offices when the information is relevant to an inquiry initiated on behalf of its provider; (6) an agency's contractors or agents; and (7) other third parties when mandated or authorized by statute.

Additionally, while certain of the solicited information is exempt from disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act because disclosure would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, other information is not exempt. Nonexempt information will ordinarily include the names of individuals, the financial institutions that they propose to serve, the statutory context in which information has been provided, and prior bank-related employment and affiliation.
